3rd Step

Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.

3rd Tradition

“Our membership ought to include all who suffer from alcoholism. Hence we may refuse none who wish to recover. Nor ought A.A. membership ever depend upon money or conformity. Any two or three alcoholics gathered together for sobriety may call themselves an A.A. group, provided that, as a group, they have no other affiliation.”

3rd Step Prayer

“God, I offer myself to Thee – To build with me and to do with me as Thou wilt. Relieve me of the bondage of self, that I may better do Thy will. Take away my difficulties, that victory over them may bear witness to those I would help of Thy Power, Thy Love, and Thy Way of Life. May I do thy will always. Amen”

Concept III

As a traditional means of creating and maintaining a clearly defined working relation between the groups, the Conference, the A.A. General Service Board and its several service corporations, staffs, committees and executives, and of thus insuring their effective leadership, it is here suggested that we endow each of these elements of world service with a traditional “Right of Decision.”

"TRUST GOD, CLEAN HOUSE, HELP OTHERS"

The Third Step is a big step for a lot of people, but once complete, you are well on the road to recovery. At the commencement of the Third Step, you are to recite a prayer. That is the Third Step Prayer. You often do this the first time with a sponsor. The third Step prayer is something that you will often recite through the course of recovery, and some even recite it every morning. Recovery prayers are essential because it gets the struggling addict used to talking and relying on God. As we look over the third Step Prayer, we can see a lot of valuable information in it.

God, I offer myself to Thee –

The first part of the Third Step prayer is a declaration that you are giving God control. This declaration reminds us that we are no longer running the show. It says in the big book of Alcoholics Anonymous, page 84 "And we have ceased fighting anything or anyone – even alcohol." We have to be reminded that we have offered our self to God, and he is now in the driver's seat.

To build with me and to do with me as Thou Wilt –

The second line in the Third Step Prayer is the realization that our life is no longer our business. We are allowing God to build our life in his vision, and we are merely spectators. We are allowing God to do his will in our lives, and we are acknowledging that he knows best.

Relieve me of the bondage of self, that I may better do Thy will

When we get into the next line of the prayer, we are acknowledging that we have been in bondage to ourselves. Our life has been plagued with self will run riot. We often made decisions only thinking about our self and not thinking of others. We are now going to stop this way of thinking and release the bondage of self that has run our lives. The definition of bondage is the state of being bound by or subjected to some external power or control. We will now release that power and control to God. We are beginning to transition from our will to God's will.

Take away my difficulties, that victory over them may bear witness to those I would help of Thy Power, Thy Love, and Thy Way of Life.

The final line in the prayer is of the utmost importance. We now know that only God can relieve our difficulties, and we are giving Him the power to do so. We know that as God removes our difficulties, we will see that he is in charge. In recovery, any struggle that we go through and overcome will be one more way that we can help others. These tribulations in our life will no longer be in vain. We will use them to reach the next struggling addict. We will do everything with a guiding force of God's Love and God's Power in God's will.

This prayer can have special meaning for every person that recites it, and to gain maximum understanding of the Third Step Prayer finding our personal meaning to it is unparalleled. You may want to write out your definition of the prayer to gain insight into what it means in your life. There are other recovery prayers that people learn, but none seems to have the same depth and weight that the Third Step Prayer has for those going through the 12 Steps of Recovery.

May I do Thy Will Always, Amen

"Carrying the Message is the basic service that our fellowship gives, this is our principal aim and the main reason for our existence. Therefore A.A. is more than a set of principles, it is a society of alcoholics in action. We must carry the message, else we ourselves can wither and those who haven't been given the truth may die. Hence an A.A. service is anything whatever that helps us to reach a fellow sufferer - ranging all the way from the 12 Step itself to a 10 cent cup of coffee and to A.A.'s General Service Office for National and International action. The sum total of all the services is our Third Legacy of service."

Letter from The Editor

I am beyond grateful to have a program that has taught me humility, integrity, compassionate, and love. I have been given the most amazing gift of a new life I never thought possible. In the last year I have lost my dad and my grandpa, but I stayed sober. The good times and the bad times are both equally important to me today. I would have never been able to see that feeling pain could give me peace. I used to want to only feel good at any cost. I know today that the spiritual growth that comes from the pain is actually my greatest asset in the journey of sobriety. To share my experiences with others and to be vulnerable enough to put the pain on the table is something I am so glad I have not missed. The miracle of seeing the eyes in another human light up as they get their new life has been the highlight. I know that as long as I stay sober and rely on God that everything is going to be alright. Being able to be true to myself even when it's not going to please everyone has given me the freedom of real honest living. I will forever be in debt to AA and this fellowship for allowing me to become the person I was meant to be. My Higher Power that I call God has always loved and protected me through it all until I could see that I too have a purpose. My dad and my grandpa meant so much to me and for them to get to see me sober and have meaningful conversations with them before they passed was without a doubt the Grace of God! I may not be doing everything exactly perfect but I know that I am right where I am suppose to be right now. My past gave me the experience, my present gives me strength, and my future is full of hope. I will never doubt the power of the 12 steps, the principles and giving freely what was given to me, for without those I would surely be lost. I have finally stopped fighting anyone or anything. This trudge is real and it is something that I will continue "No Matter What!" Happy, Joyous and Free with one foot in front of the other.

Forever Trusting God, Cleaning House and Helping Others,
Jen B

Heard in a meeting.....

"If you start treating yourself right, others will do the same"

"Blackouts are like someone following you around at a party with a Polaroid and then mixing them up and throwing them on the coffee table"

"Learn to accept instead of expect"

"The worst day sober is still always better than the best day drunk"

"What other people think of you is none of your business"

"I only drank on the days that end in 'y'."

"Pick up the phone before you pick up a drink"

Intergroup report March 2024 for Newsletter

Thanks for all the Trusted Servants, Officers, Committee Chairs, and Intergroup Reps. We appreciate all you do for Intergroup and Central Office.

Open Shifts Tuesday Night and Sunday Night 4:00pm – 7:00pm. Please make sure the person has 1 year of service, talks to their sponsor and then with training have the person come in and fill out the paperwork for being a trusted servant and then I will give them a call set up time for the person to get trained and check what day and shift they are available to train, we need make sure the person can handle the position, I will talk with them and person training them will give the person a key. The person needs to be responsible with money and responsibility it takes to be a trusted servant answering the phones and selling merchandise (coins, pamphlets, and books). They need to be an recovered alcoholic and If they are the last trusted servant that evening there are certain jobs that need to be finished (Cleaning up, vacuum and trash taken out) put heat down for the night, lights turned off and make sure back door and front door is locked, put the phones on night for hotline to pick up calls while the office is closed, before the person leaves for the night. The Trusted servant needs to be aware when the volunteer they are agreeing to stay there for the shift they signed up, if something comes up, please give Linda W a call before they leave central office. If you cannot make the shift you agreed to work, you need to call Linda W the night before so I can get a replacement for your shift.

I passed out the February Intergroup Newsletter and the Intergroup Twelve Step Call List (it has been a long time since the list has been updated – this list will help the trusted servant who is working the shift at central office in case a caller wants to talk to a women or man) for groups to complete the information requested. I have been announcing the Open Shifts available and groups in your next business meeting elect an intergroup representative to have a voice and vote for your group at our next meeting.

I gave the taxes for 2023 year to Cathy Legg to complete our taxes and she gave me a call to let me know I can pick them up, the cost this year is Federal $50.00 and State $429.00.

We got the $150.00 credit for Jan. 2024 bill, and it shows on our Feb. 15, 2024, due date which means the bill is $72.60 for Cox Cable.

In old business we will talk to the Ad hoc committees' chairs about the Spring Picnic and Bingo Night which will show in the Feb. minutes with details for these events the Intergroup is paying for these events. The committees will give more details at the March 18th, Intergroup meeting at Central Office 6:30pm will give date, time, and location.

I went to the Round up and different meetings having the Feb. 2024 Intergroup Newsletter available on tables for District 14 is aware of what is happening with district and intergroup and other events happening with AA.

Thanks for allowing us to serve as your Intergroup Chair and Co-Chair it is an honor to be of service.

Preconference

I thought that a brief introduction to Concept I would shed light on our authority and responsibility to participate in the Preconference input to the Delegate. “Concept I: The final responsibility and ultimate authority for A.A. world services should always reside in the collective conscience of our whole Fellowship” (C3). In A.A., the fellowship’s collective conscience is conveyed through a democratic process at the General Service Conference (GSC). This is in keeping with the principles of Tradition Two “the A.A. groups are to be the final authority; their leaders are to be entrusted with delegated responsibilities only” (C4). It took many years to determine if the GSC was going to work. Bill believed that he saw “in our Fellowship a spiritualized society characterized by enough enlightenment, enough responsibility and enough love of man and of God to insure that our democracy of world service will work under all conditions” (C5).

Keeping in mind Bill’s faith in our fellowship, it is time again to participate in the preconference (i.e., in preparation for the General Service Conference) input to the Delegate. Your General Service Representative (GSR) has received the information on the agenda items assigned to your group for the General Service Conference. Please provide your ideas and opinions related to these topics to your GSR. Your voice will be carried to the Area 1 Assembly through your GSR & DCM. This assembly is part of the preconference. Our Area 1 Delegate (Tomy G.) will then use your feedback on these issues to help guide his votes at the General Service Conference. In a sense the GSC is the ultimate group conscience. I hope you will participate in this important A.A. service. If you have any questions, ask your GSR, me, or any District trusted servant.

District Workshops

We are excited to announce that District 14 will be providing two vital workshops in April!

Well on April 6, 2024, these, and other questions will be answered when District 14 presents a Seventh Tradition Workshop from 10:00 am – Noon at the Shalimar United Methodist Church, Family Life Center, 1 Old Ferry Rd, Shalimar, FL. Plain Language Big Book

Board and Chair of Plain Language Big Book Subcommittee on Tuesday, March 26, 2024, at 7:00 pm. NEW Zoom ID: 872 1136 8681PW:1935.
